

HEATHER STONE

Professional Appointments

- Assistant Professor of Education
- Paul Burdin/BORSF Endowed Professorship
- Vice Chair, Institutional Review Board
- Member, Graduate Council
- Member, Innovation & Research Advisory Council

Areas of Interest

- Curriculum and Instruction
- Technology in the classroom
- Curriculum Theory

HEATHER STONE

Current Research Projects

- Biloxi-Chitimacha-Choctaw Oral History Project, ongoing 2015-present
- Book, The End of The Road: Exodus from Isle de Jean Charles, a Man-Made Crisis, under contract with University of Mississippi Press
- NSF-Stem Grant “Affirmative Sustainable Support for Scholars in Energy Technologies (ASSSET)” 2021-2023
- NSF- Geosciences Students Excelling in Real, Vital, Investigations with Community Engagement (Geo Service) 2021-2023

Multi-disciplinary Project Interests

Interested in coastal and environmental research

Specifically with regards to how to integrate this knowledge into the K-12 classrooms

Primary focus share current research with K-12 to create broader impacts